VARSITY GAME NOTES

TIGER DEFENSE LIGHTS OUT AGAINST RADNOR, 48-0

No ill effects from Friday night's power outage were felt for Marple Newtown, as the Tigers defeated Radnor 48-0 at Harry Harvey Stadium. The Tiger defense posted its fifth shutout of the season.

The special teams shined for the Tigers, as Ted Seiler and Shane Breslin each blocked a punt in the first quarter. Dan Giordano scooped up the first blocked punt and returned it 14 yards for the Tigers first score. The Tigers defense held Radnor to 129 yards of total offense, highlighted by strong performance by Ken Clark (9 tackles, 2 sacks, 1 PBU, 1 fumble recovery), and Steve Giordano (Interception, .5 sack).

Linemen Perry Koliatsis (2 tackles, 1 sack), Dave Hansell (6 tackles), Pete Massaro (5 tackles) Kevin Talley, Shane Breslin (forced fumble), Vinny Quercetti (3 tackles) and Guy DeFeo (2 tackles) controlled the line of scrimmage on both sides of the ball for the Tigers.

Offensively, Quarterback Jon Liberty (1-1, 35 yards, 6 carries, 18 yards) had three touchdowns (2 rushing, 1 passing) for Marple Newtown. Liberty hit Senior Pat Aigeldinger on a 35 yard touchdown strike in the first quarter. Running back John Rutecki (17 carries, 127 yards) punched the ball in twice from 2 and 3 yards, and Steve Giordano (4 carries, 93 yards) added a fourth quarter 80 yard touchdown run.

Marple Newtown (6-2, 5-2) travels to Haverford (2-6, 2-5) on Friday, October 27 at 7:00 PM.
