Nick Reynolds continues his Tiger football legacy in 2008. Reynolds completed his outstanding career as a Tiger in 1997, but has returned to his alma mater to coach the defensive line.

Nick's defensive line unit has earned many accolades over the past four seasons, culminating with star pupil Pete Massaro set to play at Penn State in the fall of 2008. The defensive line, nicknamed the "Wolfpack", has terrorized opposing Central League offenses and has helped keep the Tigers among the league leaders in total defense for the past three seasons.

Reynolds earned All-Delco honors as a Tiger in 1997 under the tutelage of Coach Jim Smith. Reynolds played fullback and linebacker. At Millersville University, Reynolds saw time strictly on the defensive side of the ball at both linebacker and defensive end.

Nick currently resides in Newtown Square, PA. Nick's brother, Steve, will serve as a captain for the 2008 Tigers.
