Bury Civil War Veterans Two veterans who served in Penn-sylvania regiments during the Civil War were burled today from homes in this borough.

This morning Alfred F. Charbonnier, who resided with his daughter, Mrs. Theodore Schneider, 14 North Front street, was burled with military honors by the Corporal William C. Greifzu Post 538, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Mass of Requiem was cele-brated at St. Clement's Church, and interment was made in Holy Cross cemetedy.
The deceased who had been ill since February, served during the Rebellion in the 183d Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. He was for-merly a member of Admiral Dupont Post 24, G. A. R. of South Philadel. phia. Despite his advanced age he was an enthusiastic hiker and was fond of taking long tramps through the country. He had been a resident of Darby-for sixteen years. He was the husband of the late Margaret Charbonnier. A son, Heysinger Charbennier, of 201 Damon's lane, and a daughter, Mrs. Schneider, survive.

Puneral services were held this afternoon for Conrad Jauss, 84 years old, of Philadelphia, who died last Thursday morning after a brief illness and who was burled from the home of his son, Louis F. Jauss, 613 Spruce street. Burial was made in St. James of Kingsessing cemetery. Military honors were accorded the deceased by Major M. A. Cherst Camp 51, Sons of Union Veterans. Mr. Jauss served during the Civil War in Co. G. 51st. Regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteers. His widow, Mrs. Louise Jauss and two sons, Louise this beautiful to the control of the beautiful to the control of the beautiful to the control of the contro Louis, of this borough, and August, of Aldan, survive.

Borough Notes The extensive improvements which or some time have been under way at the Gas Company building 865-6 Main street, have been completed and the offices and show rooms occupied jointed by the gas and electric company, present a most attractive ap-pearance. The electric company office was heretofore located in one of the McClura stores on Main street above Ninth. During the alterations to the company's building, both branches of the utility concern had offices in the McClure building.

The Sons of Veterans' Auxiliary realized a neat sum of money from a two-day rummage sale conducted in a vacant store at 866 Main street. The annual meeting of the Darby Needlework Guild will be held on Wednesday, November 7, at Baird Memorial Chapel of the Presbyterian
